

SPRIT OF JEFFERSON.

CHARLES TOWN, JEFFERSON COUNTY, W. VA.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 27, 1899.

GEO. W. HAINES, Editor and Proprietor.
$1.50 in Advance; $2 if Not Paid in Advance.

Many of our farmers say that the yield of wheat in Jefferson will certainly be not more than a half crop.

William Chapline, an aged citizen of Shepherdstown, Thursday made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide, by cutting his throat with a pocket knife.

At the commencement exercises of the West Virginia University last week the degree of A. B. was conferred upon George Morris Beltzhoover, Jr., of Shepherdstown.

The county delinquent list appears in this issue of the SPIRIT. As an evidence of increased prosperity it is an utter fallacy showing, as it does, a large percentage of increase over that of the previous year.

The Clay County News contains a very interesting letter from Charles Town, written by our talented young friend and former comrade, H. B. Davenport, Jr., which came to hand too late for this issue, but will be given in our next.

Capt. Julius C. Holmes has been summoned to Washington to make a final inspection of the new post-office building in that city. That our popular townsman should have been selected for this important duty is a tribute to his efficiency and ability which we are pleased to chronicle.

Cleon Moore, Esq., acting as special judge, sat in chambers here on Tuesday last in the important case of Cann vs. Cann, from Morgan County, attorneys Gordon of Cumberland, Westenhaver and Woods of Martinsburg, and Lucas of this county, appearing in behalf of the interested parties. A decision will be given later at Berkeley Springs.

On Friday, June 30, and Saturday, July 1, Willard H. Harvey's great military drama of the Cuban-Spanish war, "The German Volunteer," will be presented by local talent at Washington Hall as a benefit for the Charles Town Cornet Band. Prominent members have consented to take part in the production, and its success is assured. Seats are now on sale at Light's Drug Store, 15, 25 and 35 cents.

The Town Council at its last meeting appointed Standing Committees as follows: Streets and Alleys—Phillips, Hough and Garney; Finance—Hough, Weller and Green; Market—Hough, Weller and Green; Accounts—Green, Schulte and Garney; Ordinances—Weller, Green and Schulte; Cemeteries—Garney, Hough and Phillips; Petitions—Green, Schulte and Weller. Ordered that town license for sale of spirituous and malt liquors of E. Hiney be transferred to Jas. H. Starr.

An Unusual Occurrence.

About midday on Saturday last Mr. Thomas Frazier went into the insurance office of Washington & Alexander and instructed them to issue a policy of insurance on the wheat and straw on the Johnson land, farmed by him; and about 5 o'clock that evening a passing freight train set fire to the field, and before the flames could be extinguished about two-and-a-half acres of wheat and straw had been destroyed. Mr. Frazier reported his loss to Messrs. Washington and Alexander, and at 8 o'clock Saturday night they gave him a check for the amount of his claim in full. This incident emphasizes the importance of insurance and the efficiency of the firm of Washington & Alexander in protecting the interest of their customers.

The position of general superintendent of the trains-Ohio lines of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad will be abolished July 1, and the jurisdiction of General Superintendent Thomas Fitzgerald extended over the main line from Philadelphia to Chicago, including its branches. The extension of Mr. Fitzgerald's jurisdiction over the entire main line and branches is in line with the policy of Receivers Cowen and Murray to promote those now in service who are competent. Mr. Fitzgerald entered the employ of the Baltimore and Ohio 25 years ago. He began as a messenger boy at Airmont, W. Va., and since has filled the positions of telegraph operator, trainmaster, division superintendent, assistant general superintendent and general superintendent, having been promoted to the latter position about six years ago.

The New Market (Va.) Shenandoah Valley copies a notice of the death of Mr. Lewis H. Rowe from the Washington Star, and adds:

"Mr. Rowe was the second son of David and Catharine Rowe, and was born near New Market on the farm of his grandfather, Rev. Ambrose Henkel, deceased. He was with the late John D. Zirkle, in the New Market depot, for a while, and went to Waynesboro, Va., about 1872, where he married Miss Keeler, and thence went to Washington, D. C., where he has since resided. He was book-keeper in Harvey's restaurant for several years, and clerked in the Johnson and other hotels, and was widely known and generally beloved. Mr. Rowe was 42 years old, and leaves two children by his first wife—Homer Rowe, in Washington, and Miss Katie Rowe, who is with her aunt, Mrs. Geo. W. Haines, whose husband is editor of the 'Spirit of Jefferson.' Charles Town, W. Va. He leaves an aged mother, of this place, and many relatives and friends. We extend sympathy to the bereaved family in their sorrow."

In accordance with resolution of the 22nd Annual Council, meeting in Trinity Church, Huntington, June 7-10, 1899, and acting under the provisions of Article VI and Article VII of the Constitution, the Bishop and the Standing Committee of the Diocese of West Virginia unite in calling a special Council for the purpose of electing a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese; and to transact such other business as may be brought before them. Said special Council is called to meet in Christ Church, Clarksburg, on Wednesday, July 26, at 10 a. m.

GEO. M. PETERLIN, Bishop of the Diocese.
G. A. GIBBONS, President of the Standing Committee.

From Yellowstone Park.

MAMMOTH HOT SPRINGS HOTEL.

June 21, 1899.

FRIEND HAINES: As you will see from the above, we are journeying homeward at last. From California we went about 2,000 miles north into Alaska. That was by far the most interesting part of our entire trip, as the scenery all the way is unsurpassed in the world. We saw eight large glaciers. Muir was grand beyond expression, and, as you know, is the largest one in the world. The face fronting and extending out into the ocean is 1,000 feet high by a mile wide. It towers up 300 feet above the water, which leaves 700 feet submerged. Every few moments great sections of the vast ice cliff would break off and tumble into the ocean with a deep, rumbling sound just like thunder. The steamer stopped there nearly a day, and they sent all the tourists ashore, so they could go to and upon the glacier. Only a few, however, ventured upon it, myself among the number. We looked down into crevasses hundreds of feet deep. Great stones weighing tons were up there, which rolled down upon the glacier in its 35-mile journey through the mountain gorges. It has 27 tributaries.

We had a grand view of the moon through the great Lick telescope on Mount Lick, in California. We start through the Yellowstone Park today. Will reach home about July 2. Sorry have not the time to say more.

Yours, truly,
W. W. ROUSSE.

Edge Hill Cemetery trustees have purchased of Mr. H. B. Riddle four acres back of and adjoining the cemetery.

The Charles Town team will go to Martinsburg to-morrow to cross bats with the local team there in a match game of base ball.

Mrs. Catherine Wiest died Monday, June 10, at her home in Clarksburg, Maryland, aged 89 years. She was the widow of Jacob Wiest, who died fifteen years ago. She was one of the most respected residents of Clarksburg. She leaves eight children among whom is Mr. C. M. Wiest, of Ripon, this county.

Other business of importance will be brought up for consideration. By order
J. C. HOLMES, Capt.
A. D. BARR, Sec'y.

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Engle, wife of Mr. J. A. Engle, formerly of this place, died in Baltimore on Sunday, June 18. She was about 45 years old, and is survived by a husband and some five or six children. Her remains were brought to Charles Town Tuesday for interment, and funeral services held in the Baptist church, conducted by her pastor from Baltimore, Rev. Kent, assisted by Rev. Mr. Moncreuf, of Letchworth.

Mr. J. Elwood Fossett and Miss Bessie Hunter Stiles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Stiles, were married in St. John's Episcopal chapel, Harper's Ferry, by Rev. C. E. Shaw, on Wednesday evening last. Messrs. George Marten and Forrest Littlejohn were ushers, and Mrs. W. L. Erwin rendered the wedding march. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Stiles, sister of the bride, and Miss Pearl Goodman. Little Miss Hill, a niece of the bride, was ring bearer, and little Misses Margaret Shugart and Lula Winters ribbon girls. After a brief informal reception at the home of the bride, the happy couple took the train for an eastern tour.

Is It Malaria or Alumn?
(Popular Science Monthly.)

Langour, loss of appetite, indigestion and often feverishness are the common symptoms of a physiological condition termed "malaria." All these symptoms may be and frequently are the effect of the use of alum baking powders in food making. There is no question about the poisonous effect of alum upon the system. It obstructs digestion, prostrates the nerves, coagulates and dehydrates the blood. All this has been made clear, thanks to physicians, boards of health, and food inspectors, and the intelligent, assistant general superintendent and general superintendent, having been promoted to the latter position about six years ago.

A pure cream of tartar baking powder, which is the only kind that should be used, ought to cost about forty-five to fifty cents a pound. Therefore, if you are paying less than that, something is being sold to you at a bargain. The powder is certainly made from alum.

Always bear these simple facts in mind when purchasing baking powder.

Roanoke College.

The last session of Roanoke College was a successful one. Students came from fifteen States, Japan, Korea, Cuba, Porto Rico, Nova Scotia, and the Oneida Indians of Wisconsin. The graduating class was the largest the College ever had. Roanoke offers many advantages at small cost. The Faculty is an especially able one. The Library of 22,000 volumes and the reading room are much used by the students. The instruction is practical. The location is beautiful and healthful, and Salem has six churches and no bar-rooms. Students receive a friend's welcome to the College and town. The Catalogue of 63 pages gives full particulars. A copy of it, with the June Collegian, may be had free by addressing the president, Dr. Julius D. Dreher, Salem, Va.

Davis—McDonald.

Mr. John W. Davis, of Clarksburg, W. Va., and Miss Julia Terrill McDonald, of Martinsburg, were married Tuesday evening at 7:30 at "Media," the home of the bride, near this place. The bride was attired in Paris moulon over white satin and carried a white train. The maid of honor, Miss Annie Yates McDonald, sister of the bride, appeared in lavender organdie and carried sweet peas. Mr. Hale Houston, of Toledo, Ohio, was best man. The bridesmaids were Miss Annie A. Davis, sister of the groom; Miss Mattie B. Allen, of Louisville, Ky.; Miss Nannie G. McDonald, Berryville, Va.; Miss Margaret B. Kennedy, of Charles Town, and Miss Annie L. Daniel and Miss Mary A. McDonald, of this county. They were white organdie. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. L. Gravatt, rector of Zion Episcopal Church, who was assisted by Bishop C. C. Penick, D. D., of Richmond, Va. The groom is a prominent member of the Clarksburg bar and served with distinction in the last West Virginia Legislature. He is a son of ex-Congressman John J. Davis, one of West Virginia's most distinguished lawyers. The witnesses to the interesting ceremony were numerous—many from a distance.
